

Every year Sue has worked tirelessly to help bring this party together with her innovative ideas, meticulous research and fantastic decorating.

Also included in our thanks is Sue's new business partner, Janet Irven. Together these gals have opened their new business appropriately called Swanky Events.

Janet has assisted in helping Sue, as well as lending us some of these terrific decorations for this evening.

Thank you Sue and Janet.

Buckhorn Community Centre

* This anecdote is part of the thank-you speech given by Gill Exton, Vice-President of the Buckhorn Community Centre Board of Directors during the 2009 Volunteer Appreciation Event.